III. Constructed Responses

Athletes, Spirit Team Members, and Team Managers - In our evaluation, we want to learn why you chose to make sports an important part of your high school career. We want to learn in detail how that decision shaped you and instilled the qualities of performance, dedication, leadership and sportsmanship. We want to know how this experience will affect what you do after high school and why you deserve a Booster scholarship. With these criteria in mind, please provide us with a maximum 200-word, typed, double-spaced BCR for each that addresses these topics

1. Perseverance and dedication are essential qualities for successful athletes. Describe how you have exhibited and been recognized for these traits (training, improvement, sacrifice, overcoming obstacles, etc.) as an Einstein athlete. (Maximum Score: 3 points)
2. Sportsmanship is an important value of MCPS, the school administration and coaches, and the Booster Club. Describe ways in which your actions – on and off the field – have modeled positive behavior and sportsmanship. (Maximum Score: 3 points)
3. Successful high school sports programs need strong student leaders. Leaders are more than just team Captains, but those who serve as mentors, assist coaches, and/or raise team spirit. Describe how you have been a leader in the Einstein sports' program. (Maximum Score: 3 points)
4. Write about a specific event that describes your other contribution(s) to advance Einstein sports (i.e. rebuilding a weak program, recruiting players, tutoring teammates, managing a team, etc.). (Maximum Score: 3 points)
